

Summer Schools in Graz, Austria

The following summer schools will take place in Seggau Castle, near Graz in Austria:

International Summer School Seggau (3rd July – 17th July 2010, Seggau Castle)

This 2-week summer school is organized by the University of Graz in cooperation with Diocese Graz-Seckau and the Commission of the Bishops' Conferences of the European Community (COMECE). Students will concentrate on the topic “European Culture: The Challenge of Diversity and Unity”. For two weeks, internationally renowned experts will be at the students’ disposal in order to disseminate specialized knowledge and stimulate discussions in workshops, lectures and seminars (Law & Politics, Economy & Innovation, History & Power, Society & Culture, Ethics & Religion, Media & Communication). In this international environment, students will be trained to understand and discuss dimensions of Europe beyond the European Union. Graz University Summer School (18th July – 1st August 2010, Seggau Castle)

This Summer School is designed to be integrated into the curricula of the Joint Degree programs on master level English & American Studies, Jewish Studies – History of the Cultures of the Jews, History of South-Eastern Europe, Sustainable Development and Gender Studies offered by the University of Graz in cooperation with international partners. With a complete European integration in mind the summer school contributes to a better understanding on a European as well as International level. Thematic seminars in the respective fields will allow students to strengthen their understanding of complex issues in their study areas. Transferable skills workshops add an important aspect to the summer school and allow students to acquire additional skills that will allow them to succeed on the international labour market and become cross-culturally competent experts.
