CHANGES TO PUBLISHED INFORMATION:

We have tried to ensure that all details published here are correct at the time of going to press. In the event of any substantive alterations to these notes, or to the information provided in the Graduate Studies Prospectus, notice will be given on our website at: <http://www.ox.ac.uk/postgraduate/updates.shtml>

APPLICANTS FOR ENTRY FROM OCTOBER 2008 ONWARDS:

This form and accompanying Notes of Guidance may be used to apply for admission as a graduate student in the academic year beginning October 2007. Applicants interested in graduate studies commencing after this year should contact the Graduate Admissions Office from September 2007. This form should not be used to apply for admission in subsequent years.

Please ensure that you have read and understood the following before putting together your application:

- All applicants besides those applying to the Department for Continuing Education should read these Notes of Guidance (Booklet A) carefully. They contain full advice on completing the application form, assembling your supporting documents, submitting your application, and the closing dates. You will also find information about what happens after you have applied: assessment schedules, how we will notify you of the outcome, allocation of a college place, and so on.
- Applicants to programmes run by the Oxford University Department for Continuing Education (OUDCE) are asked to refer to the separate Notes of Guidance (Booklet B) enclosed with this form, which provide specific advice relevant to this department's admissions procedures.
- International students are asked to read the Information on Scholarships and Awards for International Students (Booklet C), which provides details of the funding awards which may be applied for using the University's main application form for graduate admission.
- Questions of an academic nature about our programmes of study should be directed to the department responsible. The appropriate contact details can be found in the Graduate Studies Prospectus at <http://www.ox.ac.uk/postgraduate>.
- Please note that a failure to follow the advice given in these Notes of Guidance could cause a delay in the handling and processing of your application, which could result in it not being considered. All candidates should read these notes thoroughly before compiling an application.

Further enquiries should be addressed to:

See page 7 for details of where to send your application.

SECTION A: YOUR PERSONAL DETAILS

The details you give here will be used for the administration of your application. If you are successful, this information will also form the basis of your student record, so please ensure it is full and accurate.

Your name is used to identify and match all materials sent with your application, and for dealing with enquiries from you. The Graduate Admissions Office cannot take responsibility for a delay, or for documents relating to your application being incorrectly filed, if the details supplied in this section of the application form are inconsistent with those you use elsewhere.

FIRST NAME: Please state your name in full, e.g. Christopher, not Chris.

FAMILY NAME: If you have a family name consisting of several parts please give only the part(s) you wish to be used on all occasions. Other names should be noted in [brackets]. If your name contains upper or lower case letters in an unusual order (e.g. de Crespigny, MacArthur) please make this clear.

PREVIOUS NAME: If you have changed your name please enter your previous name here.

PREFERRED USED NAME: If you prefer to be known by a different name from those given above you should enter this here.

SECTION B: CONTACT INFORMATION

HOME ADDRESS: Enter the address of your permanent home. This is the address to which all correspondence will be sent unless indicated otherwise.

CORRESPONDENCE ADDRESS & EFFECTIVE DATES: Only enter dates and details in these sections of the application form if you will be absent from your permanent address for an extended period. When giving effective dates, be sure to take account of the time lag required for delivery of correspondence by post.

SECTION C: PROGRAMME OF STUDY

PLEASE NOTE: This form may only be used to apply for ONE programme of study commencing in the academic year 2007-8. If you wish to apply for more than one course, you will need to submit separate applications, along with full supporting materials for each. The Graduate Admissions Office will not make copies for you.

1. APPLICATIONS FOR RESEARCH PROGRAMMES:

Please enter the six-digit course code, which may be found in the appendix to these notes on pages 9-16. Please also enter the programme of study you wish to apply for which may be found alongside.

e.g. If you wish to apply to the Music Faculty for a D.Phil., you should enter the course code '000920', tick 'D.Phil.', and write 'Music' next to Department/Faculty, along with a title for your research.

The University may be able to accommodate research that crosses subject/disciplinary boundaries. However, only one department can consider your application. If you have an inter-disciplinary research proposal, you must indicate on your application form the department most likely to have overall responsibility for your research. Please contact appropriate departments well in advance of completing your application if you need to establish which will offer the 'best fit'.

2. APPLICATIONS FOR TAUGHT PROGRAMMES:

Please enter the six-digit course code, which may be found in the appendix to these notes on pages 9-16. Please also enter the programme of study you wish to apply for which may be found alongside.

e.g. If you wish to apply to the English Faculty for an M.St. you should enter the course code '000610', tick 'M.St.', and write 'English Literature' as the title for your course. If there are sub-options for a particular degree, you should also list the option you wish to take. In this case, you might write here, '1900-Present'.

3. APPLICATIONS FOR POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA AND CERTIFICATE PROGRAMMES RUN BY OUDCE:

Please consult the separate guidance in Booklet B, provided with this form.

SECTION D: COLLEGE CHOICE & ADDITIONAL COURSE INFORMATION

Enter your choice of college here, along with an alternative choice for use in the event that your first preference does not accept applications for your programme of study. If these are not specified, we will not be able to process your application.

You may also use this section of the form to make request for part-time study, or unusual dates of entry. However, you must first ensure that any such request is compatible with your chosen programme of study.

SECTION E: NATIONALITY & CITIZENSHIP

COUNTRY OF NATIONALITY: Please state your nationality (as stated on your passport, if you have one).

COUNTRY OF LEGAL PERMANENT RESIDENCE FOR THE LAST THREE YEARS:

Please provide details of your country of legal permanent residence, with effective dates if more than one country applies, for the last three years. If you are an international student on a course in a country other than your own, the country in which you would normally reside is your country of 'legal permanent residence'. So, for example, if you are from China and are currently in the UK studying for a degree, your country of legal permanent residence will be China. You are not a permanent resident in the UK.

If you are unclear about your status, detailed information about the classification of students for fees purposes can be found in the Graduate Studies Prospectus at <http://www.ox.ac.uk/postgraduate/finance/>.

SECTION F: LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY INFORMATION

Please complete this section and read the instructions. Our minimum English language requirements are as follows:

Higher level

IELTS: an overall score of 7.5, with at least 7.0 in each component.

TOEFL: paper-based test - an overall score of 630 with a Test of Written English score of 5; computer-based test - an overall score of 267 with an essay-writing score of 5; internet-based test - an overall score of 109.

Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency in English (CPE): Grade B.

Standard level

IELTS: an overall score of 7.0, with at least 6.5 in each component.

TOEFL: paper-based test - an overall score of 600 with a Test of Written English score of 4.5; computer-based test - an overall score of 250 with an essay-writing score of 4.5; internet-based test - an overall score of 100.

Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency in English (CPE): Grade C.

The level required for each programme is stated in the prospectus (<http://www.ox.ac.uk/postgraduate>).

SECTION G: ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

ACCOMMODATION

Please note that applicants to non-matriculated courses are not eligible for college accommodation. Accommodation is not guaranteed for all graduate students.

Further information about securing accommodation in Oxford can be found on the University Accommodation Office's website, at <http://www.admin.ox.ac.uk/accommodation/>.

OTHER INSTITUTIONS APPLIED TO:

Please list any other institutions you are applying to for higher education, and the location. Where the name of the institution does not clearly identify its location, please include this: e.g. McGill University is based in Montreal.

SECTION H: ADMISSION TEST RESULTS

ENGLISH PROFICIENCY:

Enter details about your English proficiency and other relevant graduate admissions tests in this section.

Please note that applications are forwarded for assessment regardless of whether or not we have received an English Language test. Please be advised that the admitting department or faculty may nevertheless ask for a certificate to be supplied.

SECTION I: DETAILS OF CURRENT & PREVIOUS HIGHER EDUCATION

International applicants who are unsure about how their degree compares with a UK equivalent are advised to contact the UK National Academic Recognition Information Centre (<http://www.naric.org.uk>) for advice. Applicants for Master's courses should usually have the equivalent of an upper second class result with honours in a UK Bachelor's degree. Please consult individual subject entries in the prospectus, <http://www.ox.ac.uk/postgraduate>, for further information about your eligibility.

PREVIOUS UNIVERSITY/INSTITUTIONS ATTENDED:

Where the names of the institutions that you have attended do not clearly identify their location, please include this information: e.g. McGill University, Montreal, in the case of our earlier example.

QUALIFICATION OBTAINED OR EXPECTED:

Please indicate your qualifications attained, or expected, such as B.Sc., M.A. etc. Put the most relevant qualification to the programme applied to first.

RESULT (INCLUDING GRADE/CLASSIFICATION):

Please indicate the standard or class of degree, or final result attained, e.g., 1st, Distinction, GPA 3.8 out of 4.0, etc.

SECTION J: FUNDING INFORMATION – FOR ALL APPLICANTS

All applicants must complete this section. Please also consult Fees and Funding section in the prospectus, <http://www.ox.ac.uk/postgraduate/finance/>.

FUNDING SOURCE

Please select your funding source from the list below. This is not a complete list, and is intended as a guide. The information you supply in this section is important to the colleges that will consider your application, and it is in your interests to give as clear and complete a picture as possible of your situation.

- Own Income
- Own Savings/Other Personal Funds
- Parents, Relatives, Friends or Private Sponsor (state which).
- UK Government funded awards or Research Councils:
 - Arts and Humanities Research Council (AHRC)*
 - Biotechnology & Biological Sciences Research Council (BBSRC)*
 - Economic & Social Research Council (ESRC)*
 - Engineering & Physical Sciences Research Council (EPSRC)*
 - Medical Research Council (MRC)*
 - Natural Environment Research Council (NERC)*
 - Particle Physics & Astronomy Research Council (PPARC)*
- Agencies - please specify which
- Other scholarships or bursaries – please specify, e.g. Rhodes, Marshall, Commonwealth
- Employer - please give the name of your employer
- Charitable or other Foundations - please specify which
- English/Welsh Local Education Authority, or Scottish Student Award
- Dept. of Education of Northern Ireland or any Northern Ireland Education & Library Board
- Local Government Award – Channel Islands, and Isle of Man
- European Union Commission
- Student Loans
- Other (please specify)

EXPENSES COVERED

For each source, please indicate which expenses it will cover: University fees, College fees, living expenses etc. Also state whether your funds will cover travel costs. If you do not know the answer to this question, please make this clear on the form. If you will be accompanied by members of your family who will be dependent on you, you should demonstrate how their expenses will be covered.

PERIOD COVERED

For each source, please indicate the period the funds will cover, e.g. first year; all years. Please also indicate if you do not know what period your funding will cover.

AMOUNT: Please state the value of each source in pounds sterling (GBP/£) and not your local currency.

SECTION K: FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS ONLY

Please consult the separate guidance found in Booklet C (Information on Scholarships and Awards for International Students), enclosed with this form. If you are not an eligible international student, please skip this section.

SECTION L: SPECIAL NEEDS

The University is committed to making reasonable adjustments to enable disabled students to participate fully in student life. In order to provide support, relevant departments and colleges of the university may need to share information about your needs. If you disclose on your application form for graduate study that you have a disability, information about your disability will be shared on a need-to-know basis with people in the relevant departments and colleges, such as departmental and academic administrators, lecturers and tutors who will teach you, and relevant library and support staff. If you wish to discuss this section of the application form, or anything to do with University provision for those with special needs, please contact the Disability Office whose details are below.

Telephone +44 (0) 1865 280459; Fax: +44 (0) 1865 280300
E-mail: disability@admin.ox.ac.uk; Web: <http://www.admin.ox.ac.uk/eop/>

SECTION M: PERSONAL STATEMENT OR RESEARCH PROPOSAL

Please read this section carefully, and enclose a separate statement or proposal with your application.

SECTION N: SUPPORTING MATERIALS CHECKLIST

When assembling your application materials, ensure that you do the following:

1. Check the requirements of the particular programme of study to which you are applying using the instructions on page 9 of this booklet.
2. Read the notes below, which explain in detail the specific requirements for each item of supporting material.
3. Ensure that you submit two copies (one original, and one duplicate) of all of your application materials, including the application form itself.

IMPORTANT: We require at least one original of all official transcripts, and language/other test certificates per application. A copy will only be accepted in lieu if attested to be a true version of the original by a notary public or a member of staff at your current/previous university. Materials should be in English unless stated otherwise. The translation of transcripts must be approved by an official translator or the relevant issuing body.

Supporting materials will not be returned. Please make arrangements for authorised copies to be made (see paragraph above) if you are not willing to lose your original documents.

Some departments will consider an application before certain supporting materials are received (e.g. a third reference or CV).

REFERENCES:

Ensure, in good time, that your referees are willing and able to write a reference for you. Academic references are required, usually from individuals who have taught you on previous degree courses and are familiar with your work. Ordinarily this would include at least one from your most recent degree course if you have studied for more than one qualification. A character reference alone is not acceptable. We must receive the letters from your referees in advance of your application deadline. We will not contact them for missing references on your behalf.

Please forward to each of your referees one of the enclosed envelopes marked 'letter of reference', or if you downloaded this document, ensure that they are sent a copy of the instructions for referees at the end of the 'pdf' file. Please ask that each of your referees provides two copies of their reference in a sealed envelope, and that they have signed across the seal and covered their signature with a clear adhesive tape.

If someone listed on your application form is subsequently unable to act as a referee, your application will be processed on receipt of the required number of copies of a reference from another person. However, you should be aware that any substitute referee should also be able to comment on your academic performance and suitability for graduate study.

TRANSCRIPT(S):

All candidates should submit a detailed official record of their higher education up to the present, including programmes of study taken and standards achieved. This requirement is not met by the submission of a degree certificate alone. Current and former Oxford students are not exempted.

If official transcripts cannot be issued by your previous institution, you should nonetheless ask the appropriate office (usually the Registry or, in the case of Oxford students, your college authorities) for an official record setting out in detail the elements of the programme of study you have taken and, if possible, the standard achieved (in the case of Oxford graduates, a statement of marks achieved in individual honours papers will suffice). If the policy of your institution is that the transcript should remain confidential, you should ask for it to be sent directly to the Graduate Admissions Office, and ensure that it arrives by the deadline advertised for the gathered field in which you wish your application to be considered. If your institution does not produce transcripts, please obtain written confirmation of this policy from the relevant registry authority to enclose with your application. You should also ask a referee to provide details of your results to date instead.

CV/RÉSUMÉ:

A recent summary of your achievements, including details of activities, honours, publications or experience particularly those relevant to your application, should be submitted with your supporting materials.

WRITTEN WORK:

A single piece of written work should be around 2,000 words in length, and not significantly longer. It may be a clearly-defined extract from a longer piece of work if you prefer. Where two pieces of written work are required they should usually be on separate topics.

Any written work supplied must enable assessors of an application to make a judgement about your suitability for your chosen programme of study, and it is your responsibility to supply the appropriate amount and type of written work.

If necessary, you should make your own translation of your written work into English. However, where written work has been translated you must ensure that this fact, and the person and method of translation, is clearly identified.

Applicants for courses in Evidence-Based Social Intervention are advised that they may be asked to complete a brief piece of additional written work relevant to Evidence-Based Social Intervention, which will be sent out to applicants after the first stage of assessment.

GRE:

Applicants for programmes in Economics (including Economics for Development) from candidates holding, or studying for, a UK undergraduate degree will be considered without a GRE score result at the applicant's written request. All other applicants for these courses are expected to provide a recent GRE test certificate when they apply.

Applicants for the MSt & MPhil in Philosophical Theology from candidates holding, or currently studying for, a degree from a University within the European Union will be considered without a GRE score result at the applicant's written request. All other applicants for these courses are expected to provide a recent GRE test certificate when they apply.

SECTION O: DATA PROTECTION & FINAL CHECKLIST

Please complete the checklist when you are in a position to do so, and complete the data protection section if you wish to nominate an agent to act on your behalf.

SECTION P: DECLARATION

Please read, sign and date the declaration.

SUBMITTING YOUR APPLICATION:

Once you have signed the declaration you should double-check that you have enclosed all of the supporting material required for your chosen programme of study.

Your completed application form and supporting material should then be sent to one of the addresses below.

All applications, except those applying for certain advertised departmental studentships and the MSc Neuroscience:

The Graduate Admissions Office
University Offices
Wellington Square
Oxford, OX1 2JD

Applications for the MSc Neuroscience should arrive by midday, Wednesday January 10th 2007, at this address:

Graduate Studies Assistant for Clinical Medicine
Graduate Studies Office, University Offices
Wellington Square
Oxford, OX1 2JD

If you would like to receive acknowledgement of the receipt of your application, you should complete and enclose the self-addressed postcard. This will be returned to you when we have opened your application. We will not acknowledge receipt if you do not enclose this item. If your form was printed from the web, you are asked to include a self-addressed postcard of your own.

WHEN TO APPLY:

Applications for admission must be submitted according to the timetable on page 10 of these notes of guidance.

The University of Oxford operates a series of admissions cycles, or 'gathered fields'. Applications are processed as they arrive and, if all necessary materials have been supplied correctly, entered into the next available cycle. Once the deadline for that cycle has passed, applications are assessed together. If the required materials are not received by the deadline, the application will be held back until they arrive, and then entered into the next available cycle.

Different subjects operate with different gathered fields. Although more than one gathered field may be shown for a particular programme of study, you should submit your application with its supporting material for the earliest possible gathered field, as there is no guarantee that places will be available later in the year.

Candidates intending to apply for any sort of financial support or Research Council funding should ensure that their completed university application is received in time to meet the strict deadlines of the relevant funding bodies. If you require a formal offer before your funding application can be made, ensure that you have allowed time for this. More information is available in the prospectus (<http://www.ox.ac.uk/postgraduate>).

IMPORTANT: CLOSING DATES

The closing dates are enforced strictly. The Graduate Admissions Office (GAO) must receive your materials by the closing date. The postmark on your application package is not taken into account. If the department to which you have applied requests that copies of your materials are also sent to them directly, this requirement is in addition to, and not instead of, the formal application you must make to the GAO.

You are advised to apply well in advance of the relevant deadline to allow time for us to contact you if required. The volume of applications handled by the admissions office means that we are not able immediately to confirm whether individual submissions have been received. For peace of mind, we recommend that you use a guaranteed or recorded mail delivery service which can ensure and confirm delivery for you.

AFTER WE HAVE RECEIVED YOUR APPLICATION:

If you enclosed a self-addressed postcard, this will be sent to you to acknowledge receipt. If the form is incorrectly completed, or if required materials have not arrived in the Graduate Admissions Office by the closing date, your application might not be processed or assessed. We will endeavour to contact you as soon as possible to advise of any problems of this kind, but it is your responsibility to ensure that you have followed the instructions in these Notes of Guidance and in the Graduate Studies Prospectus (<http://www.ox.ac.uk/postgraduate>).

Your application will be held in the Graduate Admissions Office until all the necessary supporting material has been received. It is your responsibility to make sure that any required supporting material not enclosed with your application is sent to the Graduate Admissions Office at the earliest opportunity and is clearly identified with your full name and programme of study.

ASSESSMENT:

Once your application is complete, it will be forwarded for consideration by the appropriate admitting body. Details about our assessment criteria are given in the Prospectus, and on our website. One of four decisions will be made:

- Unsuccessful application
- Offer of a place, with conditions
- Offer of a place, with no conditions
- Re-evaluation: your application will be assessed again in the next gathered field.

OR

Waitlist – a place on a waiting list, to be used should spaces become available, if you were being assessed in the last available gathered field.

TIMETABLE FOR ADMISSIONS DECISIONS:

GATHERED FIELD	1	2	3	4	5	6
Closing date	27 Oct 06	24 Nov 06	12 Jan 07	16 Mar 07	18 May 07	27 July 07
Dept. decision	24 Nov 06	19 Jan 07	16 Mar 07	18 May 07	29 Jun 07	10 Aug 07
1st choice college decision due	9 Feb 07	9 Feb 07	20 April 07	8 Jun 07	20 Jul 07	17 Aug 07
Allocation due	23 Mar 07	23 Mar 07	18 May 07	13 Jul 07	10 Aug 07	24 Aug 07

Applicants who submit applications for more than one course, and subsequently receive more than one offer, are likely to be set a deadline by when they must choose their preferred offer.

COLLEGE PLACES: (see timetable above)

If you receive an offer of a University place, you will be informed that you have a guaranteed college place. First, the college you chose on your form will be sent your application. If that college cannot offer you a place, your department will attempt to find you a place elsewhere, before returning your file to the Graduate Admissions Office for ‘allocation’ if necessary. The allocation date is advisory; in a minority of cases this process can take considerably longer. After this date, the admissions office should be able to keep you updated of progress.

CHANGES TO YOUR DETAILS:

If your personal or contact details change, or you wish to provide additional information in support of your application, details should be sent to the Graduate Admissions Office using the contact details found at the start of this booklet. Most changes will require us to receive written confirmation from you, either by post or e-mail.

FOLLOWING UP YOUR APPLICATION

Please allow the admissions process to run its course. If you do have reason to follow up your application, you should contact the Graduate Admissions Office, who will be able to offer you further advice. You will be asked to clearly identify yourself by providing certain personal information. Please note that Graduate Admissions Office staff are not permitted to disclose the outcome of your application.

If you will not be able to keep in regular contact with the University regarding your application, and wish to appoint an agent to act on your behalf, please complete the relevant part of Section O. If you wish for them to receive any correspondence sent to you, please indicate this in your address details by providing a ‘care of’ name. Without your express authorisation, we will refuse to deal with anyone else regarding your application

APPENDIX: APPLICATION INFORMATION

You will need to consult the table on pages 10-16 to establish:

- The application code for your chosen programme of study. You need to provide this code in Section C of the application form.
- The 'gathered fields' (see p7) operating for your programme of study, and the associated closing date.
- The materials which you are expected to submit in support of your application.

How to use the information table

If you are applying for a research programme, these courses are listed alphabetically on pages 10-12. Applicants for taught courses should consult pages 13-16.

Please take care to select the appropriate course information from the list. If your chosen course has yet to receive a confirmed code (TBC), please contact the Graduate Admissions Office.

Attendance Type:

The letters 'FT/PT' next to a course entry indicate that the relevant course offers both full and part-time admission.

Closing dates:

The application closing dates are given at the top of each page, with a tick (✓) used to indicate that the closing date is used by the relevant course. The closing dates are:

- 1: 27 October 2006
- 2: 24 November 2006
- 3: 12 January 2007
- 4: 16 March 2007
- 5: 18 May 2007
- 6: 27 July 2007

Minimum supporting material:

All applicants are expected to supply the following:

- Completed application form 'GAO2007', including a personal statement (or research proposal).
- 3 academic references, usually from individuals who have taught you on previous degree courses. Ordinarily this would include at least one from your most recent degree course if you have studied for more than one.
- Transcripts of previous higher education results (see page 6 of these notes for more information).
- A CV/résumé

Please note: if your first language is not English you may be required to submit proof of your language proficiency as a condition of any offer. Applicants are advised to include this information when they apply (see section F above).

Additional Requirements:

Some subjects require more than the minimum set of supporting materials. Please check the letter given in the table overleaf against the list below:

A = No additional requirements

B = 1 piece of written work

C = 2 pieces of written work

D = 2 pieces of written work and a 30 minute CD of live performance (see www.music.ox.ac.uk).

E = 1 piece of written work (2-3,000 words for those intending to offer studio practice as part of the final submission, otherwise 4-6,000 words). Applicants must also contact the Ruskin School regarding submission of a portfolio.

F = 2 pieces of written work and a GRE test certificate (see p.6 above for more details).

If you encounter difficulty in assembling these materials, you should contact the Graduate Admissions Office for advice in advance of the closing date you are intending to apply by.

This booklet contains advice for international students about scholarships and awards which may be applied for using the application form for graduate admission. It should be read when completing Section K of the form.

If you require general advice about funding as an international student, or require information on scholarships and awards which are not listed in Section K, please consult the prospectus, or contact the International Office:

International Office

Fax: (+44) 01865 270077
E-mail: international.office@admin.ox.ac.uk

Web address: <http://www.admin.ox.ac.uk/io>

All applicants should complete the application form according to the instructions given in the main notes of guidance (Booklet A).

IMPORTANT: Before indicating which scholarship(s) you wish to be considered for you must check your eligibility carefully by reading the information in this booklet. You should also note the following:

1. To be eligible for any of the scholarships listed on this form, other than the Karim Rida Said awards, you must apply for admission during the first, second or third gathered fields (i.e. 27 October 2006, 24 November 2006 or 12 January 2007). Applications for Karim Rida Said Foundation scholarships only may also apply in the fourth gathered field (16 March 2007) see details under the scholarship entry below. Please note that some subject areas require or recommend Clarendon and/or ORS applicants to apply for admission in the first or second gathered field. It is therefore essential that you check the requirements of your department or faculty in the relevant subject entry of the Graduate Studies Prospectus (<http://www.admin.ox.ac.uk/gsp/>).
2. Only candidates who have been accepted, conditionally or unconditionally, for University admission by a department or faculty at the time of shortlisting will be considered for scholarships.
3. Candidates for part-time degrees may be considered for Clarendon Fund Scholarships and for Karim Rida Said Scholarships, subject to meeting the other criteria of the awards.
4. Information about other scholarships for study at Oxford which are not listed below, for which there are separate application forms, may be found on the International Office website at <http://www.admin.ox.ac.uk/io> Forms for most of these awards can be downloaded from the web.
5. Competition for all these scholarships is intense and you are advised to also apply for other external awards at the same time as university scholarships. Useful websites are www.britishcouncil.org, www.studentmoney.org, www.acu.ac.uk and www.rhodestrust.org. You should also check to see if your department or college has any funding.
6. Successful candidates will be notified of the scholarship decision by email and post, unsuccessful candidates will be notified of the scholarship decisions by post.
7. Financial conditions of scholarships vary and the details are set out in the descriptions on the following pages. A breakdown of expenses and an explanation of college fees and university fees is provided in the International Student Guide available at www.admin.ox.ac.uk/io
8. Please keep this booklet safe for future reference and to remind yourself of the notification date and conditions of the scholarship awards.
9. Data Protection Act: Information you have provided on this form, and transcripts and references submitted in support of your application, will be held by the University in accordance with the provisions of the 1998 Data Protection Act. In order to enable your application for financial support to be processed, it may be necessary for this application form, academic transcripts and references to be passed to external sponsors of scholarships. (This information will only be passed to external sponsors who have agreed to handle it in accordance with the provisions of the Act). By completing the graduate admission form and the funding section you agree that the information may be passed to external sponsors.

Clarendon Fund Scholarships (for students liable to pay fees at the overseas rate only)

About 130 awards, supported by funds from the Oxford University Press, will be available for students accepted for a programme of graduate study commencing in October 2007. The awards are for study for taught or research Master's degrees, or for the D.Phil. in any subject area. The scheme aims to enable outstanding students to take up their places at Oxford and decisions on awards will take into account both the academic standing and financial circumstances of candidates. Most awards will be partial (normally university and college fees), although some full scholarships (university fees, colleges fees and living expenses) will be provided. Awards will normally be extended for the duration of the holder's programme of study, subject to an annual review of financial circumstances and academic progress

Clarendon applicants must also apply for ORS if their proposed course of study makes them eligible.

A number of colleges are offering awards in association with the Clarendon Fund. If you are offered one of these linked awards, it will be tenable only at the college which has provided the award. This may be a college that you did not name in Section D of your application form. Information about college awards will be available on our web site at www.admin.ox.ac.uk/io in late October.

Some subject areas require or recommend Clarendon applicants to apply for admission in the first or second gathered field. It is therefore essential that you check the requirements of your department or faculty in the relevant subject entry of the Graduate Studies Prospectus. It is expected that most award decisions will be made by the end of February 2007.

China Oxford Scholarship Fund (China, including Hong Kong)

A number of awards are available to students ordinarily resident in the People's Republic of China including Hong Kong, who will be taking up a place to read for a graduate degree at Oxford University in October 2007. Students must be planning to return to China on completion of their studies. The value of awards will be decided by the trustees of the fund.

Candidates must make a separate application to the China Oxford Scholarship Fund. Further information will be available in January 2007 at www.admin.ox.ac.uk/io.

Decisions are expected to be made in June/July 2007.

Chinese Ministry of Education/University of Oxford Scholarships (China- specific universities and subjects)

Up to ten scholarships funded jointly by the China Ministry of Education and the University will be available for students from China taking up places at Oxford in October 2007 to read for a Master's or doctoral degree. The awards may be held in the broad areas of information technology and telecommunications; life sciences; material science and engineering; public health; energy and environmental studies; and applied social science and WTO-related areas. The awards are open to students from specific universities in China. A full list of the eligible universities and further details on subject areas can be found at www.csc.edu.cn. Please check these details before you apply for the scholarship.

Candidates must be citizens and permanent residents of the People's Republic of China who are not working or studying abroad at the time of application. They need to be able to demonstrate both academic excellence and the potential to become leaders in their field, decision makers and opinion formers within China.

The award covers University and college fees, provides an allowance for living costs and a flight to and from China at the start and end of the course. The award will normally be available for the duration of the programme of study. Scholarship-holders are expected to return to and work in China after graduation.

Candidates must also complete a separate scholarship form and employer reference form issued by the Chinese Ministry of Education at <http://apply.csc.edu.cn>. It is expected that decisions on the award of scholarships will be made by the end of April 2007.

Dulverton Scholarships (for students from Central/Eastern Europe)

A number of full or partial scholarships, funded by the Dulverton Trust, will be available for students from Central/Eastern Europe (namely Albania, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, the Czech Republic, Georgia, Macedonia, Moldova, Montenegro, Romania, Serbia, and the Ukraine) to study for a postgraduate degree at the University in October 2007.

Full (university fees, college fees and living expenses) or partial (a variable amount) scholarships will be awarded on the basis of outstanding academic merit and financial need. The scheme is also open to undergraduate students and those already on course at Oxford. Decisions on the awards will be made by early April 2007.

Hill Foundation (for students from Russia)

Up to ten scholarships funded by the Hill Foundation will be available for students from the Russian Federation taking up places at Oxford in October 2007 to read for a graduate degree. The awards, which may be held in any subject area, will cover University and college fees, travel from and to Russia, and provide a maintenance grant. Awards will normally be tenable for the duration of the student's course to a maximum of three years. Candidates should have a first degree from a Russian university and should not have undertaken any subsequent degree. They should normally not be more than 25 years of age.

The purpose of the awards is to enable Russians of very high academic ability to undertake a period of study at Oxford University before returning to develop their careers in the Russian Federation. Further information about the selection criteria for the scholarship can be found on the Foundation's website www.hillfoundationscholarships.org

Jenkins Memorial Fund Scholarships (for students from specific European universities)

At least three scholarships, funded by the Jenkins Memorial Fund, established in honour of the late Lord Jenkins of Hillhead, former Chancellor of the University, will be available for students from other Universities within the European association namely: Bologna University; the Rheinische Friedrich-Wilhelms University, Bonn; Charles University, Prague; the Jagiellonian University, Krakow; the Institut Universitaire des Hautes Etudes Internationales, Geneva; University of Leiden; Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne; Complutense University, Madrid and the University of Helsinki, who are entering a course of study in the humanities or social sciences in October 2007. Priority will be given to students following a one-year Master's degree but candidates entering a two-year Master's degree or a Second BA degree may also be considered. Candidates must either be current students of one of the eligible universities or have graduated not earlier than 2004. At least three awards of £10,000 will be available. The awards are normally tenable for one year only.

These awards are provided in association with the Europaeum, a grouping of ten European universities which aims to promote academic collaboration and scholarly exchange. Further information about the Europaeum can be found at www.europaeum.org.

Shortlisting will take place at the end of March and the final selection of award-holders is expected to be made by the end of April.

Karim Rida Said Scholarships (for students from Lebanon, Jordan, Syria, Palestine and Iraq)

A number of scholarships funded by the Karim Rida Said Foundation, with support from the University of Oxford, will be available for students under 40 years of age from Lebanon, Jordan, Syria, Palestine, and Iraq taking up places in October 2007 to read for a one-year taught Master's degree. The scholarships may offer full (university fees, college fees and living expenses) or partial (a variable amount) awards. On completion of their programme of study, scholarship holders are expected to return to their own country or another country in the Middle East specified by Karim Rida.

Shortlisting of candidates will take place in May 2007. Final decisions on the award of scholarships will be made in mid-July 2007 following interviews of shortlisted candidates by the Karim Rida Said Foundation. (Note: Candidates are advised to submit university applications in the first, second or third gathered field but those who apply in the fourth gathered field may also be considered for an award.)

K.C. Wong Scholarships (for students from the People's Republic of China)

Three scholarships, funded by the K.C. Wong Education Foundation and the University of Oxford, will be available for students from the People's Republic of China taking up places at Oxford in October 2007 to read for a D.Phil. degree. The scholarships cover full fees (University and college) and maintenance for a maximum of three years. Candidates should currently be resident in the People's Republic of China and should already have, or expect to obtain before October 2007, a Masters degree.

The K.C. Wong Education Foundation sponsorship of the scholarship is in the form of a scholar loan. However, the loan does not have to be repaid provided that the student returns and works in China after his/her graduation from Oxford, and is certified by the institution where he or she works as having made a contribution to the work of that institution.

Decisions on the awards will be made in April/May 2007.

Noon Foundation Scholarships (for students from Pakistan)

A number of full (university fees, college fees and living expenses) or partial (a variable amount) awards will be available in 2007 for students of Pakistani citizenship (and normally resident in Pakistan) entering a graduate degree at Oxford University. Some of the awards may be funded jointly with the University of Oxford, the British Foreign and Commonwealth Office's Chevening scheme, and the Open Society Institute. The scholarships may be held in any subject area except Medicine. Candidates who have previously studied outside Pakistan will not normally be considered unless there are exceptional circumstances. Applicants should enclose a separate sheet setting out (in not more than 200 words) how they intend to contribute to Pakistan on their return, and how their studies at Oxford would assist them in this.

Scholarship shortlisting will take place in May and final decisions on the award of these scholarships will be made in July/August 2007.

Oppenheimer Fund (for students from South Africa)

A small number of awards of up to £5,000, provided from the Oppenheimer Fund, will be available towards the cost of undertaking a postgraduate degree at Oxford in October 2007. Applicants should enclose a separate sheet setting out (in not more than 200 words) how they intend to contribute to South Africa on their return, and how their studies at Oxford would assist them in this.

The award will be renewable for the duration of the student's programme of study, subject to satisfactory progress.

Decisions on the award of this scholarship are expected to be made by June 2007.

Overseas Research Student (ORS) Awards (for students liable to pay fees at the overseas rate)

This scheme, funded by the British Government, is open to research students liable to pay fees at the overseas rate and is available for those who in October 2007 will be entering a new course of study or going into the second year of a research degree. The number of awards available in 2007 is expected to be around 70. Awards are made on the basis of academic excellence and competition is very severe.

Students who obtain an ORS award will normally be charged university fees at the home/EU rate. Awards, which are available for a maximum of three years, may be held in conjunction with many other scholarships, and can be seen as an element of a 'package' of financial support assembled by a prospective student. Most ORS awards for new students at Oxford are likely to be offered as part of a funding package with a Clarendon award or other University award.

Some subject areas require or recommend ORS applicants to apply for admission in the first or second gathered field. You should therefore check the requirements of your faculty or department in the relevant subject entry in the prospectus. No candidates applying for admission later than the third gathered field can be considered for ORS awards.

The eligible research degrees for ORS are listed at www.admin.ox.ac.uk/io/orselig.shtml

Raffy Manoukian Scholarships (for students from Armenia or of Armenian descent)

A small number of awards is expected to be available in 2007-8 for Armenian nationals or those of Armenian descent (one or both parents must be Armenian) for study for a graduate degree in the Humanities (Classical Languages and Literature, Ancient History, English Language & Literature, Medieval and Modern Languages, Modern History) the Medical Sciences, the Mathematical and Physical Sciences, Biochemistry, Law, Economics, Politics or International Relations. Candidates must be under 25 years of age on 1 October 2007. These awards are also tenable for study for an undergraduate degree. The awards will cover University and college fees and provide a grant of £6,000 per annum towards living costs.

Decisions on awards are expected to be made in May 2007.

Sasakawa Fund Scholarships (for students from Japan)

Up to two awards will be available to students who have been accepted by the University for a graduate degree for entry in October 2007. The scholarships will be awarded to applicants who are Japanese nationals, or, alternatively, to students from countries other than Japan (including the UK) whose programme of study at Oxford University requires some period of study in Japan. The awards of up to £5000 will be made for one year in the first instance, and may be renewed for a maximum of three years, subject to satisfactory progress.

Further information on these scholarships is available from the Secretary of the Sasakawa Fund, The Oriental Institute, Pusey Lane, Oxford, OX1 2LE; Telephone 01865 278225; Fax 01865 278190.

Decisions on the awards will be made in late June 2007.

Scatcherd European Scholarships (for students from Europe)

A small number of scholarships is expected to be available for graduate students who are nationals of any European country (excluding the UK or Turkey but including the Russian Federation and other countries to the west of the Urals) for entry to a postgraduate degree in October 2007. Scholarships will cover University and college fees and a maintenance grant for the duration of the student's programme of study.

The scheme is also open for study for a second BA degree or as a graduate visiting student (see the Oxford Colleges Admissions Office website: www.admissions.ox.ac.uk). Decisions on the awards will be made by early April 2007.

Advice for referees and applicants for graduate admission 2007-2008

To the referee:

You have been asked to supply a reference on behalf of an applicant to a programme of graduate study at the University of Oxford. We would be most grateful if you could let us have your comments on this applicant's academic fitness and general suitability for their proposed programme of study, and for any other information you consider to be relevant to this application. If you have knowledge of the applicant's recent study it would be helpful if you could indicate the standard attained. References marked 'Strictly Confidential' will be treated as such, subject to the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998.

Please send two copies of your reference and include your title, and the name and address of your institution. Please seal the envelope, sign across the seal, and cover your signature with clear adhesive tape, before returning it to the applicant (not the Graduate Admissions Office) to submit with his/her application.

To the Applicant:

Please bring the attention of your referee to the requirements above, allowing good time for them to write a letter for you, and return it, before the closing date of the field in which you wish to apply.

Please ensure that the envelope is returned unopened with your application form.
